

News – Autumn 2015.

Look out for our Autumn Conferences:

‘How to Close the Attainment Gap through Outstanding Parental Engagement.’

During the Autumn of term, we will be teaming up again with the world-leading expert in the field of parental engagement, Professor Charles Desforges, O.B.E, to continue our inspiring conference series aimed at raising the attainment of under-achieving pupils, including those accessing the Pupil Premium Grant, and closing the attainment gap.

The half day conferences kick off in Hampshire authority in October, following on from sell-out events in Birmingham and Gloucestershire in the Spring and Summer terms.

Benefits of Attending:

- Hear from the leading experts in the field.
- Discover how effective parental engagement can have a dramatic impact upon pupil attainment in a very short period of time; for all groups of pupils, including those children accessing the Pupil Premium Grant.
- Find out how your staff team can achieve ‘Outstanding’ leadership in parental engagement under the current Ofsted framework.
- The opportunity to take away the Award-Winning Impact materials to use in your school, including our writing programme, rated ‘Outstanding’ by Ofsted.
